

Score Power® as of January 2, 2009

Name: Alton James Jones

Confirmation Number:

This Score Power®, including your Equifax Credit Report™ and FICO® score analysis, is available for you to view until 01/02/2010. If you would like a current Score Power, you may order another one in the Member Center.

Section Title	Section Description
1. Credit Score	Summary, Understanding Your Score, Helping Your Score, Hurting Your Score, How Lenders See You
2. Credit Report	Personal, Credit, Account, Inquiry, Public and Dispute Information

CREDIT SCORE

Section Title	Section Description
1. Credit Score Summary	Summary of how your score rates
2. Understanding Your Score	Summary of factors that are affecting your score
3. Helping Your Score	Detailed information of factors helping your score
4. Hurting Your Score	Detailed information of factors hurting your score
5. How Lenders See You	The bottom line on how lenders may view your credit risk

Credit Score Summary

Your FICO® score as of January 2, 2009 is:

Great

771

Your FICO® score of 771 is better than 70 % of US Consumers

- FICO® scores range between 300 and 850.
- Higher scores are considered better scores.

How Your Score Rates
Great	760-850
Very Good	725-759
Good	660-724
Not Good	560-659
Bad	300-559